A WHOLE ATTITUDE OF LIFE

PSALM 86:11-17 | MATTHEW 5:7, 6:1-4
REV. ABBY LIETZ

When we're kids we're often told to check our attitudes, consider our attitudes, even adjust our attitudes. We're taught we can actually choose our attitudes and thereby make our days good ones. But sometimes we forget that option as we age. Wait – 45-year-old me can adopt an attitude of forgiveness? Of compassion? Of optimism instead of fear or worry?! Today we consider the condition of our current attitude and look to Jesus, who helps us choose a whole attitude of life that is for our good and the good of the world.

WELCOME!
We are so glad you're here!

Teach me your way, Lord, that I may rely on your faithfulness; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name. I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name forever. For great is your love toward me; you have delivered me from the depths, from the realm of the dead.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me—they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength in behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did. Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

—Psalm 86:11-17

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

—Matthew 5:7

"Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

"So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

—Matthew 6:1-4
