EMBODYING THE CHARACTER OF JESUS

LUKE 23:20-30
REV. ABBY LIETZ

Today – All Saints Day – the Church celebrates and remembers the lives of our beloveds who have died and passed into eternal life with God. Blessed we are to look ahead with hope to life everlasting found in Jesus even as we grieve and mourn. Today we also begin our new worship series, Mirrors of the Master, considering how the lives of those recognized as saints in the Catholic Church reflect the character of Jesus. In our denomination, we don't see stained glass windows or statues depicting saints in our worship spaces, nor do we pray to them – but what might the saints, their lives of faith, reveal to us of Jesus' heart? Let us remember their witness, and claim our own place among the cloud of those who echo Christ's likeness in our world today.

WELCOME!
We are so glad you're here!
