Songs That Shape a Faithful People

OCTOBER 11, 2026
NEWDAY PRAISE WORSHIP | 10:00AM

REVELATION SONG

REVELATION 7:9-12 | REVELATION 21:1-5
REV. ABBY LIETZ

Sometimes life is weird. People can be weird. Scripture can be weird. Things just get weird sometimes! Have you ever been to House on the Rock in Wisconsin? A guy decided to build a house on a rock. But he couldn't stop there. Now, this tourist trap boasts nonsensical, absurdist displays of his fanciful - or disturbed - imagination. But why? While some things in this world don't make sense the poetic songs of the Book of Revelation help us better grasp the mysterious and, sometimes weird, goodness of God. We sing our final song in our all-church study this week - but the music isn't over. Our music-making is just getting started!

WELCOME!
We are so glad you're here!

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

—Revelation 7:9–12

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them and be their God; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true."

—Revelation 21:1–5

JOIN A GROUP

Small Groups are a place to build meaningful relationships, grow in your faith, and encourage one another through every season of life. Whether you're new to church or have been attending for years, there's a group where you can connect, ask questions, study Scripture, pray together, and support one another.

We offer groups for a variety of ages, life stages, and interests that meet throughout the week both at PUMC and in homes. No matter where you are on your faith journey, we'd love to help you find a group where you can belong and grow.
